SEEN, HEARD & TOLD BY THE EDITOR

We cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard. Acts 4:20

Far be it from me to seek to introduce discord or anything like that into the community at Christmas time, yet some discord seems to have arisen between the GCW and the Circuit Clerk's office. Here is the story and I dont want to make it very long. One day early last week Corbitt Thompson told me something like this, 'Crumby has another suit against himself.' I went to the circuit clerks office to check up. Now, I dont think that my being an editor gives me a superior right to find out the truth from the record, certainly no greater right than Corbitt's right to know, or any greater right than that of any other citizen. I think I am fair in saying that Miss Cornie Perry, the deputy clerk, then on duty, let me see the docket with considerable reluctance. I did see the docket and did publish the bare facts of the Bland et al vs. Crumby matter, the date filed, etc. During my stay at the office, there was considerable talk on Miss Cornie's part about the GCW being sued for publishing the matter, whether by herself or by others I just dont recall; anyway that the GCW would or might be sued for publishing the matter.

As a matter of fact, I did publish the facts last week, not that I wanted to add to Crumby's troubles, but to more or less 'invite' a suit; you know folks get stiff necks sometimes. I know I do. I may be entirely wrong but I do not now believe there is anything sacred about ANY public records and, in inviting a suit, I just want it determined, once for all, whether public records are public, or records only for lawyers.

In such litigation, the records show, (1) in a big book, called the docket, where bare facts are shown, who is suing whom and the lawyer's name, and (2) what may be called the 'papers' which give full details as are set forth. I did not ask to see any 'papers' yet I think that the 'papers' are public, even if the clerk, who is responsible for the safekeeping of these 'papers', as he should be, exercises any reasonable precaution he sees fit to exercise to see that the 'papers' are not stolen, lost or monkeyed with in any way. Mr. Stone, attorney for Bland et al, must have heard of this matter because, in a roundabout way, he sent me word that he would send me a copy of the 'papers', which I dont want.

All I want to know is this: if I, not as editor of a country paper, but as a plain, ordinary citizen, have a right to view what I consider PUBLIC records, or, if, indeed, they are public records.

Whatever readers may think, I want to say here at Christmas time that I think old '3-star', as I often use in referring to Chief Crumby, is doing a dern good job and I want to help him do even a better job.

Oliver Thompson, formerly of Leflore, now of Laurel, Maryland (a suburb of Washington), dropped in Monday to renew his subscription was kind enough to say that, in his opinion, the GCW was right about having Negro cops here in Grenada, that he had seen how well they do in the Negro sections of the nation's capitol.

Another one of Moon Mullin's boys, Syd, now a Pfc in the Marine Corps, hope he will get a few more stripes soon, got a Christmas gift subscription to the GCW. Since he is Moon's son, maybe he is 'Star' Mullin.

I guess all of us got refund checks from the gas company for Christmas presents. Mine was not big, but appreciated.

In spite of the fact that we wanted to publish ALL Santa letters, we will have to leave a lot out, hoping to get to them next week.

Not only have we been remembered with numerous Christmas greeting cards from our friends here and there over the county, the state and the nation, but another friend, Gus Donley remembered us with a fine mess of sweet potatoes, one of which was an elongated affair, over two feet long.

Stuart Gibson in Memphis not only sent us a lovely Christmsa card, but also six dollars in cash money to renew his subscription and that of his sister, Mrs. Fletcher. Thanks for both.

'Miss' Ollie Jennings is getting an unexpected Christmas present, that is a year's subscription to the GCW. It was this way. Dr. Smith sent Mabel ten dollars and Mabel used three of it for a subscription for Miss Ollie.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. McClusky of Middletown R. I., are getting a year of the GCW from their parents in Grenada. This, too, is a Christmas present.

Waugh, Tulsa, Okla.; a brother, John Little of Charleston; 21 grandchildren and 8 great grandchildren.

The funeral was held at the Mitchell home at 10 a. m. Sunday with Rev. R. B. Smith of Hardy, Rev. Shelton and Rev. Henry Biggers of Huntsille, Texas officiating. Burial was in Pearidge Cemetery. Garner Brothers Funeral Home had charge.

Pallbearers were Billy Lance, Jesse Tribble, Charles Kenwright, Jr., Bobby Waugh, Mack Mitchell and Leland C. Whitten.

Reflections At The Christmas Creche

The Christmas creche is in its niche
And lit by golden candlelight;
The Mother's face with soft love glows
The Infant's with a radiance bright.

Too young the infant Lord to see
A vision of the Crucified;
Too young to know that in His name
Have countless hordes of martyrs died.

Reflected in our children's eyes,
The brightness of that tiny face—
The hope of all the world He is—
The future of the human race.

And yet today, throughout the world,
The still, small voice of conscience sleeps;
A shudder stirs the little frame,
And lo! the infant Jesus weeps!

—Anne Wilson Frye.

COLORED FOLKS HAVE PARADE, ETC. FRIDAY

Bands, Floats, Students March Through Town

The Negro citizens of Grenada had their Christmas parade last Friday and a most credible parade it was and bore out the oft-repeated statement that 'folks just love a parade.'

The parade followed a route including the main business parts of the city Friday afternoon and had full co-operation of Grenada's 'law', as do other parades.

The line of march was headed by Fox's ambulance, followed by the band from the colored school; next was an attractive float, 'Farmers', then 5 private cars, then a float of the Negro Chamber of Commerce on which was a considerable number of white-draped colored girls, then several private cars, then an excellent float of the Excelsior Literary Club, and ended with 5 private cars.

Later in the day, a fine Christmas program was put on at the colored high school building and, later still, the lucky ticket in the membership drive of the Negro C of C. was disclosed to have been held by Frank Minter, who received the grand prize, a television set.

The day's program ended with a dance held at the Negro Recreation Center, at which the Greenwood school band supplied the music.

More cotton acreage, Dot Hayden.

An oil well, Groce Carver, also more cotton acreage.

Dont forget wife, Joe Cook.

A rest from Jackson, Billy Semmes.

Grenada Industries Party Has Musical Theme

A musical theme prevailed in the decorations and entertainment at the annual Christmas party held Saturday night at the City Hall for all employees of Grenada Industries, Inc.

A beautifully decorated Christmas tree added to the beauty of the scene. The northern and southern sections of the Auditorium held card tables covered with white cloths and decorated with centerpieces of tiny sleighs, holly and [illegible].

Festivities got underway at 8 p. m. with John C. Lake, president, giving a welcome address to the employees. Refreshments were served and door prizes, Dormeyer deep well fryers, were awarded to Miss Martha Mauney and James Pryor.

The Delta Statesmen, DSTC orchestra, played dance music and dancing was enjoyed by all in the center section of the Auditorium.

Bingo was played during the evening. Bingo and dancing prizes were donated by Grenada merchants.

During intermission Gene Odom at the piano and Robert Bardwell, played the guitar, entertained the guests.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

International Uniform Sunday School Lessons

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Scripture: Matthew 6:9-10; 28:16-20; John 17:18-21; Acts 1:6-8; Revelation 11:15b.
Devotional Reading: Ephesians 6:10-20.

Thy Kingdom Come

Lesson for December 27, 1953

"THY Kingdom Come"—how often we pray it, how little we think about it! How much do we mean it? And do we know what we mean when we say it? Scholars who know the near-eastern languages tell us that the form of the Lord's Prayer as it would be in the Aramic language which Jesus and his disciples no doubt used, is that of a poem. Not rhymed but rhythmical.

"Thy named be hallowed," "Thy Kingdom come," and "Thy will be done," are three parallel lines, and their essential meaning is the same. The kingdom of God does not simply mean the fact that God is King of Kings. He is, and does not need our prayers to make him so. The kingdom of God means the state of things, here on this earth or in heaven or anywhere, where God's royal will is actually done. We have a right to believe that in heaven God's will is the rule of life. On earth God's will is the rule of life too, only it is disobeyed perhaps more often than it is obeyed.

Dr. Foreman

In heaven all God's children are loyal; on earth some are disloyal all the time, and even his loyal children have their times of disloyalty. So what we are praying for, if we say intelligently "Thy Kingdom come on earth as it is in heaven," is that more and more God's will may be known, loved, obeyed, carried out on this earth of ours.

• • •

In The World

Instead of any reflections in this column, the reader is invited to do some reflecting on his own. Here it is nearly the end of December. An old year will be gone before the week is out. It is a good time to look back on the year almost gone, and ask the question seriously: Can we see any answers to our oft-repeated prayer, "Thy Kingdom come"? In the year 1953, has the Kingdom of God come any nearer? The Kingdom, as Paul tells us, is "love, joy, peace . . ." Have these things spread or have they wilted during this past year?

The reader is invited to let his mind run back over what he can recall of national and world-history for the past 12 months. Have there been events which have been encouraging to Christian people? Have there been events which would tend to discourage Christian people? Is there some evidence that love, joy and peace have spread somewhat in the world, or have they been dammed up?

• • •

In The Neighborhood

What about the neighborhood, the community where the reader lives? It never will be exactly like heaven, (or if it is, please let the writer know and he'll move there) but surely there must be something heavenly about it, or everybody would move away. Has the neighborhood grown toward the Kingdom of God this year? Is there more love, joy, peace in it? Are the churches getting anywhere? Do the churches set a better example of Christian living than they used to? Does the preaching of the Gospel take effect in people's lives? If people move away, is it because they can't help it or because they can't stand the place any longer? If a church has lost a minister this past year, has it been hard to get a new man to come or would a minister welcome a chance to be a pastor in your community? Have the Christians who live there made some real effort to answer the prayer "Thy Kingdom come?" Do they ever try to win others to Christ? If a stranger's car broke down in your community, would he go away finally with memories of helpfulness or would he always hate to remember the place?

• • •

In Home And Heart

The Kingdom, Jesus said to his friends, "is within you." The will of God is done first of all in the minds, intentions and wills of individual persons in their everyday relationships. If the Kingdom does not come in heart and home, it is not going to come in the community of the world.

Let the reader think back over his personal year of 1953, not what he has read about or seen on the TV screen, but what has gone on in his own heart and home. Have love, joy, peace been on the increase there?

Town Talk

BY FED ROBINSON

Christmas - 1953

Over the entire nation tonight bright tinsel decorations bedeck the streets and stores. In the midst of festive moods are upon these millions of people. Every town, large and small we saw on a recent trip to California seemed to have become aware of this great religious holiday and their streets - some bright and expensively dressed, some dull and skimpy adorned, dependent upon the degree of the mood of the people - but all were looking ready for Santa Claus. At Christmas time the mind and spirit of people undergo great changes for the better. For a few days at least we all become interested in the lives and happiness of others and there isn't anything we would not do for a relative or friend. Isn't that wonderful? Well, all of it is worth what it cost in money for this thing we know as Christmas Spirit keeps us from hebrdening our hearts beyond repair. The Great One whose birthday we celebrate in this season urged us all to become like little children and that is exactly what we do - we become little children again for a day or so re-live our own childhood experiences through our association with the children of our family and it broadens our heart and that's very good for us.

Our wish to everyone everywhere is that you may have everything you want and may the good Lord bless you on this precious day and every day of your life.

Sincerely,

—Fed

BIRTHDAY PARTY AT GRANDMOTHER'S HOUSE

With Yuletide decorations forming a colorful back ground for the party, Barbara Jean greeted her guests and received many lovely gifts. She presented each a stripe candy cane as a favor.

As the children sang familiar songs including carols, a recording was made of their voices.

Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Howell and Mrs. Harry Rayburn. Mrs. McWilliams, great grandmother was present at the party. Guests were served delicious punch and birthday cake. Those present were:

Sally Martin, Gayle Burr, Margaret Crenshaw, Edith Gowan, Ann Turner Hunter, India Daigre, Barbara Daigre, Rebecca Frazier, Sandra Sims Martha James, Carilla Smith, Sherry Carrol, Virginia Marascalco, Sharon Johnson, Sheila Latham, Rosa Ray Allen, Judy Morrison, Becky Boteler, Julie Oliver, Rosanne Berry, Cynthia Simmons, Linda Simmons, Ann Howell. Those unable ot attend were: Ann Neely, Linda Smith, Ann Dagle, Amarie Johnson, Pam Juchheim, Teresa Johnson and Jane Marascalco.

YULETIDE OPEN HOUSE

The beautifully appointed home of Mrs. B. J. Anderson, Sr. was the scene of an elaborately planned Yuletide Open House reception on Tuesday afternoon, 3 to 6 o'clock of last week, when Mrs. Anderson's daughter, Mrs. Walter Murphy and daughter in law, Mrs. Brannan Anderson received guests, assisted by their mother.

The home, beautifully decorated for the holidays, featured a huge lighted tree in the front living room, a minature lighted church on the piano, wreaths tied with wide red ribbons and poinsettias in bloom, with mammoth lighted candles casting a soft glow in all of the reception rooms, including the music room and library. The dining room where Mrs. Vassar Dubard and Mrs. Jerry Taylor served punch and Mrs. William H Saunders poured coffee, the colorful decorations accented the red and green motif, featuring a red linen damask cloth and lighted red tapers in hurricane lamps which were encircled with holly. Candles lighted the buffet where candy was served. Refreshments consisted of chicken salad sandwiches, turkey and apple loaf bread sandwiches, cheese balls, and toasted nuts, cookies, coffee and punch.

Other ladies assisting were Mesdames John McEachin, Johnnie Mitchell, and Earl Burkley. About 150 guests called.

GRENADA GARDEN CLUB HOLDS ANNUAL CHRISTMAS PARTY

The Grenada Garden Club held its annual Christmas party Thursday afternoon in the club room of the Community House. Hostesses were Miss Eva Ray, Mrs. J. B. Perry, Sr., Mrs. C. C Provine, Jr., and Mrs. J. D. Quinn, who after graciously welcoming their guests, served a delicious dessert plate of fruit cake, salted nuts and coffee.

The Christmas motif was carried out beautifully, designed and arranged by Mesdames W. E. Jackson and H. J. Thiel. Of special interest was the mantel which was banked with gilded magnolia and ivy leaves interspersed with graceful tapers. The piano formed another center of interest with green garlands and red berries flanked by crystal bowls of glistening Christmas balls. Various other arrangements added to the beauty of the club room.

A program of Christmas music was presented by Mrs. Doris Pressgrove and the following young musicians: Marie Schmitz, Barbara Ann Vance, Bobby Sue Collins, Sonia Strom, Helen Kimbrough, Mary Lawrence, Danna Martin, Margaret Little, Nancy Hopperton, Andy Pressgrove, Jed Dennis, Gene Douglass and John McEachin.

At the conclusion of the program, members of the club followed their annual custom of exchanging gifts.

Now, Lots More Mississippians Can Say "Merry Christmas!" by Telephone

We started rushing telephone construction work in Mississippi as soon as materials became available after the war — and since then we've filled over 96 per cent of all the applications placed, increasing the number of telephones in the state from 115,876 to approximately 260,000.

Many more Mississippians than ever before can say "Merry Christmas" by telephone this year.

In making this possible, we have spent over 84 million dollars for new buildings, central office equipment, cables, poles, wires, and other equipment needed to give Mississippians more and better telephone service.

As we work to meet today's demand for service, we're planning ahead for the telephone needs of tomorrow.

EARLY DOES IT!

LONG DISTANCE telephone lines will be crowded on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day. In spite of the many new facilities we're adding, there will be less likelihood of delay on calls placed on Christmas Eve or Day if you will place your calls before Christmas Day.
